Child – to – Parent away

- Forms – Separation Chit
- Templates – Certificates
- Little Troopers Treasures App
- Birthday Cards
- Post Box Activity Sheet
- Separation Diary (On Pack USB)

What do you already do? Any ideas to share?

TRANSITION

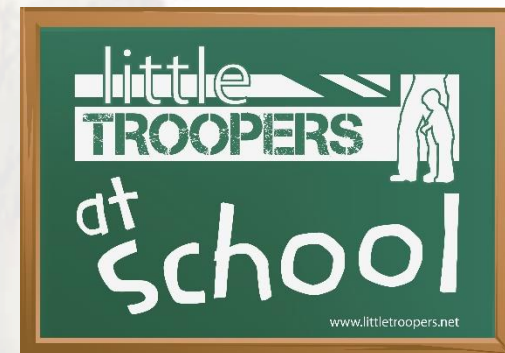

It is the norm for military families to be frequently relocated, linked to these moves some of the issues service children face while also moving school include;

Adjusting to new curriculum's, finding it hard to make new friends and not always having access to the same subjects as their previous school

- Transition Chit
- Child IN, Child OUT
- Certificate Template
- Display Board – In & out
- Information Sheet – Moving On Checklist

“It doesn’t matter how long a service child is in my school I want it to be a fond memory for them”

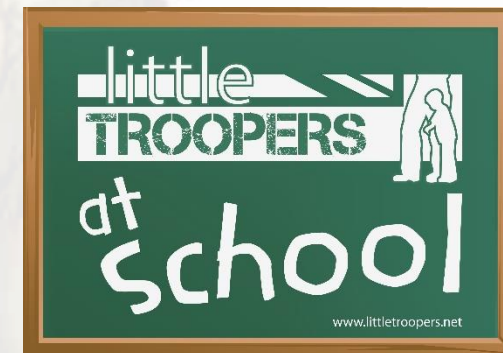

CONSISTENCY

Our aim is to ensure all military children get fair and consistent support within their education setting wherever that may be, for all circumstances and however many times they move schools.

- Making the forms available in school
- Appreciating if forms come in
- Asking at parents evening about separation periods
- Recognising the challenges faced, lack of roots etc
- Embrace lots of the free and easy ways you can use Little Troopers
- When launched utilise our Service Pupil Premium Audit Tool
